

Seaside School District 10

Code: GDQA
Adopted: 7/26/07

Nonschool Employment

All employees are expected to devote their time and energy to accomplishing those tasks required by the District in an efficient manner. Employees should avoid outside employment that interferes with the performance of their responsibilities and the maintenance of productive relationships with students, parents, and other staff members. If outside employment does interfere with job performance, the employee will be required to make a choice between District employment and outside employment.
