

Seaside School District 10

Code: IGADA
Adopted: 7/26/07

Work Experience

Seniors in good academic standing and enrolled in a minimum of two classes may qualify for early dismissal during the regular school day so that they may work, attend a community college or pursue other educational endeavors. This privilege may be revoked for attendance, behavior, or credit problems.

Select juniors may qualify for work privilege with parent, counselor, and building administrator consent. To be considered a junior, a student must be passing two or more classes, meet behavior criteria, have counselor and advisor support, and have parent permission.
